

I strongly object to proposed changes in ownership rules. Increasing the number of stations and other media allowed by one owner should not be changed. The commission should be trying to limit monopoly not extend it.